

I'm writing to express how FM translator stations like K-Love provide daily inspiration, and uplifting to us and thousands of people in our community. The music provides a refreshing alternative to obscene talk shows and DJs on the other stations. We tune in every time we are in the car and listen throughout the day in our home. We depend on this radio program.